From the President's Easel

Irene Taylor

Another summer has nearly passed and Mother Lode Art Association is about to launch its 61st Annual Juried Art Show. Art Show Committee members are honing the details to make this another show that we can be proud to share with the community. So much of the committee communications and work is done with our electronic gadgets today. I really wonder how our founding and early members got the job done. We can be humbled by their dedication to the arts and to the early Art Shows. They must have had many more phone calls and face to face meetings.

Our job is much easier because we can easily solicit your help to get the details of the show handled through emails. So when a committee member does contact you, please volunteer your assistance where needed. The week before the show will be filled with receiving the art, hanging the art for the judges to view, rehanging the art for the show, gathering prizes together and creating baskets for the raffle and simply getting the Opera Hall ready to present to the public. We will need more sitters again this year as the show will be available for viewing from the reception night, Friday, Oct. 11, through Wednesday, Oct. 16th. Finger food needs to be donated for the reception and also for the 2nd Saturday Art Walk on Oct. 12th. Wine will also be available on each night as well as water and coffee. And then, when it is all over, volunteers will be needed to restore order to the Opera Hall and return panels and other MLAA property to storage.

I hope this run down on art show doings has encouraged you to VOLUNTEER because, as the saying goes, 'many hands make light work'.

I hope you have had a great summer and returned to your studio/art space invigorated and inspired to create your next masterpiece in hopes of winning an award and some prize money at the 61st MLAA art show. I look forward to seeing you at our Sept. 16, 2013 meeting. Sign up sheets for volunteer opportunities will be available at the meeting.

Creatively,
Irene

SEPTEMBER 16th, 2013 PROGRAM

Susie Hoffman

Judie Cain

Judie Cain from Murphys will be doing an oil painting demo at the September meeting. Judie works her magic with practiced skill in oil paints. Several of her works are in print, giclee and on home products. Working from live models, on location, and/or from photo references from her travels, she strives to capture the light, liveliness, and the mood of the moment through quick strokes of vibrant colors, using brush and/or painting knife. At home with a variety of subjects, she finds excitement in even the most ordinary things such as the nostalgia of a Victorian porch, a bouquet of her treasured roses and scenes from her gardens, expansive landscapes, animals, or children on the beach.

To Cain, painting is something you have in your heart. She sees herself as an "Impressionist Colorist" painter but others have told her that she has an "Expressionist" flair. "It's whatever attracts me at the time; I express my feelings, so I'm a little of both," says Ms. Cain. "If the light hits a certain way, I think "if I could only capture that." It's humbling trying to capture what Mother Nature has perfected," she acknowledges.

A native of Burlingame, CA, Judie studied at California College of Arts & Crafts, in Oakland, CA after high school. "I felt very intimidated by the talent there at the time." (Her early art attempts went from doodles on scratch pads and work in modeling clay to decorating for school dances and events.) She has taken inspiration from many great artists, particularly John Singer Sargent's memorable portraits, Joaquin Sorolla's magnificent renderings of people and animals at oceanside, as well as Monet's ability to capture atmosphere. Judie conducts classes in her studio. Contact her at 728-2267 or cainart@goldrush.com. Judie will be participating in the 7th Annual Calaveras Artist Studio Tour Sept. 28th and 29th in her studio.

OCTOBER 21st, 2013 PROGRAM

Randy Klassen

Randy Klassen of San Andreas will be doing the October demo. Randy's dad was an artist who studied with one of Canada's foremost watercolorists, Walter J. Phillips. When Randy was 12, his art career began when the two famous artists included him in a sketching trip to the Canadian Rockies. "I've painted ever since, trying my hand at pastel, pen and ink, oil and acrylics, but always returning to my favorite and most challenging medium, watercolor." Randy states. "Painting was an avid hobby with me until 1981 when it became a full time profession."

Randy said it is inspiration and challenge that gets him started on a project. After that, it's pretty demanding work. I like the design I find in detail and it takes time to capture the relevant details that give my art the designation of 'realism'. My hope is that the finished product will return to the viewer some of the original inspiration that got me started.

Randy has received awards in San Francisco, Palm Springs and other U.S. cities. Last year, Randy and his wife Joyce, returned to one of their favorite places, Calaveras County, and he is happy to be painting the charm of the foothills.

FEATURED ARTIST

Ruth Morrow

Ruth Morrow has spent the past 26 years painting and photographing the beauties of the Mother Lode. Ruth's loose and fanciful painting style is visible in her watercolor, acrylic, oil and mixed media pieces. 2012-13 has been busy and gratifying years in her artistic endeavors. At Sacramento Fine Arts Gallery Ruth was presented with an award for excellence for her watercolor, 'A Close Knit Village' and the Olive Schmid Memorial Award for her piece, 'Spring at the Old Homestead', which also won a 2nd place at the October MLAA Art Show. She received multiple first awards at the 2012 Frog Jump Professional Art Show. In March she received a bronze plaque from the Windsor-Newton Company in New York for her excellence in watercolor.

She also received the Florence Ferrario Award in the Bold Expressions Show. Ruth was the first artist to win the Ironstone Obsession poster contest twice with "A Romp in the Dills" and "Trucking Dills". Last year was Ruth's 9th year of acceptance into the KVIE Art Auction. For the past 5 years she has been a member of Aloft Gallery in Sonora. She also belongs to Calaveras County Arts Council, the Gallery Group, The Golden Palette and Arts of Bear Valley. In Sacramento she is affiliated with Sacramento Fine Arts Gallery, Watercolor Artists of Sacramento Horizons and Northern California Artists. Her work is on display at Aloft Gallery in Sonora, Calaveras Arts Council in San Andreas, Galerie Copper in Copperopolis, Murphys Grille, the Window Gallery in Arnold, her studio in Arnold and Art on Main Gallery in Murphys.

Artist Statement: My husband of 53 years (Arvid) and I have collected antiques and collectibles since we were first married and that has come in very handy in decorating the Aloft front window each month. We have two daughters, who reside out of state with four grandchildren, two boys and two girls. My hobbies are gardening, forest hiking with our black lab, Nicolas and going to garage sales and thrift shops with my husband. I love the 'thrill of the hunt'.

I have done art since I was a little kid. My parents always encouraged me and kept me supplied with paints and all types of art supplies. I was very lucky.
